MY SIGNATURE CERTIFIES THAT:

I understand that any incident of fighting or unsportsmanlike behavior on the part of a HCC student athlete or team is grounds for excluding that student athlete and/or team from participating or further participation in post-season play.

I understand that HCC Athletics reserves the right to flag/oversee all student athlete registrations.

I understand that Region XX rules require an automatic three game suspension for any student athlete involved in fighting.

I understand that all post season play will be at the discretion of the HCC Athletic Administration regardless of team record.

I have provided accurate and complete information as requested on the reverse side of this form.

I have not been instructed to provide inaccurate or incomplete information on this form by any HCC staff member.

I give HCC permission to release my transcript and academic progress to officials determining athletic eligibility and awards.

I understand that my participation in any fraction of a single contest constitutes a year of eligibility used, including participation on a club team.

I understand that I must stay enrolled in at least 12 credit hours during the entire length of my intercollegiate athletic season. If I do not follow the above, I will become immediately ineligible for any and all future NJCAA and HCC athletic participation. Additionally, my team will be forced to forfeit any games that I participated in while enrolled in less than 12 credit hours. Please Note: *Enrollment does not include audited classes.

I give HCC permission to include me on a roster listed on the HCC Athletics website. I also give permission for my athletic accomplishments to be listed on the same website.

By participating in intercollegiate athletics at HCC, an NJCAA member institution, I understand that I am not eligible to file any legal court action against the NJCAA.

I am not allowed to publicly criticize game officials/referees to the media or through an internet posting. Such action is prohibited by conference by-laws and subject to disciplinary action starting with a one game suspension.

I have read and understand the above:
