

	THR 101 Intro	THR 102 Elements	THR 106 Acting	THR 120 Practicum	THR 201 Workshop	THR 207 Technical
	3 credits	3 credits	3 credits	1-3 credits	3 credits	3 credits
Successfully transfer to a four year Theater program as a Junior	To provide performance opportunity to perform with a cast of peers. Prepare and Deliver a competent and competitive audition for a role in the Academic Theatre setting	To provide performance opportunity to perform with a cast of peers. Prepare and Deliver a competent and competitive audition for a role in the Academic Theatre setting	To provide performance opportunity to perform with a cast of peers. Prepare and Deliver a competent and competitive audition for a role in the Academic Theatre setting		To provide performing ensemble opportunities to students who will be focusing on "Musical Theater" at a four year institution.	.
Interpret and analyze the ways Theater functions in the culture at large	Students will be able to analyze and critically evaluate a Theater performance Students will be able to recognize and identify important fundamental developments and trends in Theater.	Students will be able to analyze and critically evaluate a Theater performance Students will be able to recognize and identify important fundamental developments and trends in Theater		Demonstrate how at least one aspect of Set, Lighting, Sound, Property, and/or Costume Design are integrated into a live public performance -
Increase artistic/professional competency in Theater through formal training	Describe the working relationships among Director, Producer, Set and Costume Designer, Technical and House management	Describe the working relationships among Director, Producer, Set and Costume Designer, Technical and House management	To promote and foster good acting and rehearsal techniques.		The student will demonstrate knowledge of theater performance and production skills in a formal college production.	