

Administration of Justice – AAS Degree Outcomes Curriculum Map

Outcome	ADJ-101	ADJ-102	ADJ-104	ADJ-201	ADJ-203	ADJ-204	ADJ-208
1. Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the three major components of the Criminal Justice System: police, courts, and corrections.	X
2. Students will understand and be able to apply concepts of community-oriented policing.				X			X
3. Students will be able to apply basic theories of police management.							X
4. Students will communicate clearly in written reports.	X	X	X	X		X	X
5. Students will be able to explain the protections offered criminal defendants by the United States Constitution.	X	X	X		X	X	X
6. Students will be able to identify the major Supreme Court decisions applicable to the American Criminal Justice System.	X	X	X		X	X	X
7. Students will be able to discuss correctional philosophies, and identify historical and current dilemmas in corrections.			X
8. Students will graduate prepared to successfully compete for entry-level jobs in the criminal justice system.							