Course/Program Title: ADJ 203 Criminal Law Date: Spring/Summer/Fall 2014
Course/Program Team: Meredith Dominick and Robert Bauer

Expected Learning Outcomes

1. An understanding of the general concepts of criminal law, including intent, conduct, and the law of defenses and mitigation

Assessment (How do or will students demonstrate achievement of each outcome?)

The assessment of outcomes occurs through quizzes and exams & scenario based questions.

Validation (What methods have you used or will you use to validate your assessment?)

This course has undergone radical changes to include a new text book, new faculty both full time and adjunct. This course is currently being reevaluated in its entirety for assessment, validation, results and follow up. The updated and more current textbook alone is going to improve student learning, however results are not known at this time. Updated tools are being put into place.

Results (What do your assessment data show? If you have not yet assessed student achievement of your learning outcomes, when is assessment planned?)

End of Fall semester

Follow-up (How have you used or how will you use the data to improve student learning?)

Budget Justification (What resources are necessary to improve student learning?)

Nothing additional needed at this point.

The above results are from prior school semesters. This course has undergone radical changes to include a new text book, new faculty both full time and adjunct. This course is currently being reevaluated in its entirety for assessment, validation, results and follow up. The updated and more current textbook alone is going to improve student learning, however results are not known at this time. Outcomes 1 and 4 are the only current outcomes for this course now with the change of the new text. Outcomes 2 and 3 are valid in another course being offered. Updated tools are being put into place.
