

Course Outcomes Guide

Course/Program Title: HIS 210

Date: 7/20/2014

Course/Program Team: Lore Kuehnert & Tim Jenness

Expected Learning Outcomes

- 1) Recognize major historical trends in the cultural, economic, and political development of Latin American countries and evaluate the impact of these trends upon the region's international status.
- 2) Analyze primary and secondary source materials and demonstrate how such materials reflect cultural identity formation, relative access to or lack of access to political power, contemporary debates regarding economic development and social justice in Latin America.

Assessment

The common assessment will take the form of a 20 item assessment given initially at the beginning of the semester and again at the end of the semester.

Validation

Internal validation will include analysis of the data collected, as well as comparisons between the assessment data and the outcomes of other types of exercises assigned in this course. The assessment tool will align with standards set by the Conference on Latin American History.

Results

A common assessment will be piloted during the initial semester in which the course is taught.
