Up Coming Events

Variety Show 4/1-2/2016- The club will host it's annual variety show on Saturday, April 2nd at 8pm. The dress rehearsal will be on Friday, April 1st at 8pm. A screening date has yet to be decided. Once it has been posters need to be posted around campus, preferable before school resumes in January. Helping plan this event is a point opportunity!

Future Ideas/ Brainstorming

Fundraising- "Who's Line is it Anyway?" will be the theme of a night of an improvisation show fundraiser. This event will take place in the Black Box on January 29th, 2016 at 8pm. We will be able to sell popcorn at this event. Club members will be able to help organize the event, sell concessions/ tickets, and/or perform in the show. Sean Besecker, Colt Smith, Paola Torres, Jacob Waeyaert, and Carrie Barr chose or were recommended to perform in the show. Posters for this show will need to be posted around campus as soon as possible.

Another idea for fundraising is the Amazing Race around campus. A committee will be made at the beginning of next semester to start planning.

The end of year picnic will utilize Paola's idea of a pizza night/night under the stars. We will look into using Papa Murphy's for the pizza.
