COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This is an advanced painting class that further develops the foundational skills and techniques learned in beginning painting (ART 104). ART 204 students work in oil paints in assignments that emphasize representational painting, including landscapes, figures, portraits, and still life. Students will be introduced to the work of various artists and techniques that contribute to contemporary expression in the medium. Students will develop a portfolio of work for final review. Prerequisite: ART 104.

TEXTBOOK:

None required.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Student recognizes and applies the fundamental elements of art in a visual assignment.
 - Students create more advanced compositions in the media that build on the elemental tools of respective design.
 - Students develop more advanced compositions by applying these elements in a series of works.
- Student uses proper language concerning the materials and techniques appropriate to the medium
 - Students use terminology after advancing in the respective media they use in art-making by instruction and experimentation.
- Student recognizes and differentiates the styles and mediums of important artists and historical movements.
 - Students analyze and compare leading artists in the medium and extract the lessons by comparatively evaluating style and technique.
- Student experiences creative challenges that develop critical thinking and problem solving.
 - Students add to their portfolio of works, continuing to address various techniques and compositional challenges.
 - Students demonstrate advancement through their expression of visual content in a series of works of art.
- Student will create and present a body of work created in individual study that demonstrates high level of skill, personal style, thematic discernment and understanding of composition in a chosen medium.

- Students continue to build their final portfolio in chosen medium, adding to their accomplishments from their first class in the concentrated area.

COURSE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Furthering the skills developed in ART 104, and with a focus on more complex and advanced techniques:

- Students will identify various types of brushes, painting surfaces, pigments, and mediums.
- Students will use the properties of value in painting.
- Students will apply paint to surface in order to create depth within the picture plane.
- Students will demonstrate properties of color: hue, value, saturation.
- Students will critique and make corrections by applying feedback.
- Students will construct using the painting properties of acrylics, also the characteristics of other paint used by fine artists.
- Students will use techniques necessary to paint objects in a realistic manner.
- Students will experience painting from observation.
- Students will apply design principles to personal work.
- Students will design and contract for a series of paintings of their own interests.
- Students will contract for a series of paintings in an area of personal interest and create a tentative schedule for works (a minimum of seven) to be completed. Thought and planning are required to avoid a nebulous direction, but the project can be subject to alteration as creative thought may change the direction of the series.
- Students will maintain and demonstrate a portfolio of accomplished paintings.

MINIMUM CLOCK HOURS REQUIRED FOR THIS COURSE

To earn one hour of academic credit at HCC, students are required to complete a minimum of 12.5 clock hours (45 fifty-minute “academic” hours) of coursework per semester. Those hours of coursework may be completed through a combination of hours within the classroom and hours outside the classroom. Certain courses may require more than the 12.5 minimum hours of coursework per credit. A three credit hour course requires 37.5 clock hours.

For most classes, students should expect to do at least 2 hours of coursework outside of class for each hour of in-class coursework.

	DIRECT Faculty Instruction In-class 52.5 h required	Student Work Out of Classroom 62.5 h required
In-class instruction and discussion	52.5 hours
At home assignments, readings or project research		62.5 hours
Total Hours	52.5 h	62.5 h
