COURSE:

DNC 119 – Modern Dance II (2 credits)

(replace this parenthetical with section number & Days/Times class meets)

INSTRUCTOR:

(replace this parenthetical with name, office hours, and all contact information)

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Intermediate Modern is a more in depth study of American modern dance techniques. Students will expand their movement vocabulary and technique through combinations and exercises of greater difficulty. The class will incorporate floor work, stretches, breath support, body alignment, and improvisational exercises in which students can explore creating their own choreography. Students will also develop critical thinking skills through analyzing outside dance performances. There will be performance opportunities during the semester and students will develop the skills required for dance and/or theatrical productions. Prerequisite: DNC 118.

TEXTBOOK:

No textbook required. All students are required to wear athletic clothing that allows for full range of movement. Please no see through leggings, shorts that are too short, or sports bras without a shirt. Please remain professional. Class should be performed in bare feet.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Achieve a high level of proficiency in dance technique and performance.
 - Students will describe and execute intermediate modern technique.
 - Students will perform intermediate modern choreography in front of an audience.
- Develop and comfortably use appropriate language relating to the technique of each dance genre.
 - Students will define and describe intermediate modern terminology.
- Recognize and differentiate the styles of important choreographers and choreographic movements.
 - Students will compare Modern Dance choreographers while incorporating a working knowledge of modern dance history.
- Critique dance from social and historical perspectives.
 - Students will apply critical thinking skills by evaluating a dance performance.
- Demonstrate knowledge of dance composition.
 - Students will demonstrate basic knowledge of improvisation and choreographic process.

MINIMUM CLOCK HOURS REQUIRED FOR THIS COURSE

To earn one hour of academic credit at HCC, students are required to complete a minimum of 12.5 clock hours (15 fifty-minute “academic” hours) of coursework per semester. Those hours of coursework may be completed through a combination of hours within the classroom and hours outside the classroom. Certain courses may require more than the 12.5 minimum hours of coursework per credit. A three credit hour course requires 37.5 clock hours.

For most classes, students should expect to do at least 2 hours of coursework outside of class for each hour of in-class coursework.
