PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The student will be able to:

- Write analytically using appropriate literary terms, textual and critical support, and standard documentation style.
 - Analyze information and formulate it into a composition about female literature and authors.
- Incorporate social, cultural, ethnic, literary, and historical contexts in analysis of literary works.
 - Identify writing styles, themes, and importance of major works by female authors in various cultures.
 - Analyze information and formulate it into a composition about female literature and authors.
 - Describe the historical and cultural environments of major female authors and their works.
- Demonstrate critical and independent thinking in interpretation of texts.
 - Analyze information and formulate it into a composition about female literature and authors.

COURSE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOME (outside program):

The student will be able to demonstrate familiarity with various female authors, the time period in which they wrote, and their importance and relevance in today's world.

MINIMUM CLOCK HOURS REQUIRED FOR THIS COURSE

To earn one hour of academic credit at HCC, students are required to complete a minimum of 12.5 clock hours (45 fifty-minute "academic" hours) of coursework per semester. Those hours of coursework may be completed through a combination of hours within the classroom and hours outside the classroom. Certain courses may require more than the 12.5 minimum hours of coursework per credit. A three credit hour course requires 37.5 clock hours.

For most classes, students should expect to do at least 2 hours of coursework outside of class for each hour of in-class coursework.

	DIRECT Faculty Instruction In-class 37.5 h required	Student Work Out of Classroom 75 h required
