STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The student will be able to:

- Write a fifty-word narrative in French and in a manner comprehensible to natives accustomed to writing of non-natives.
- Speak French at a level comprehensible to a sympathetic interlocutor who is accustomed to dealing with non-native speakers
 - Ask and answer questions on a variety of everyday topics; describe people and places, talk about events that are happening in their lives.
 - Perform many daily routines, such as making phone calls, greeting and departing, expressing likes and dislikes.
- Translate a range of authentic and pedagogically prepared texts in French for which they have been prepared through pre-reading activities.
- Translate French in uncomplicated and controlled contexts.
- Demonstrate a workable concept of culture and cultural values and be able to recognize differences in culture such as levels of formality, diversity and geographical factors.
 - Illustrate cultural awareness, sensitivity, and appreciation of French speaking people.
 - Demonstrate insights into their own culture and language.

GENERAL EDUCATION OUTCOMES:

This course may fulfill an Arts/Humanities General Education requirement. These are the outcomes for that requirement:

- Evaluate important artistic, cultural, philosophical, historical, and religious movements from a global perspective.
- Understand the impact of diverse groups of people in and on the arts and humanities.

MINIMUM CLOCK HOURS REQUIRED FOR THIS COURSE

To earn one hour of academic credit at HCC, students are required to complete a minimum of 12.5 clock hours (15 fifty-minute “academic” hours) of coursework per semester. Those hours of coursework may be completed through a combination of hours within the classroom and hours outside the classroom. Certain courses may require more than the 12.5 minimum hours of coursework per credit. A three credit hour course requires 37.5 clock hours.

For most classes, students should expect to do at least 2 hours of coursework outside of class for each hour of in-class coursework.
