

Institutional Student Learning Outcomes

Pharmacy Technician, Letter of Recognition

Hagerstown Community College student will be prepared to:

Learning Outcomes	Demonstrated By	Related Activity Examples
1. Demonstrate personal and social responsibility by practicing responsible citizenship, being open to new ideas, and understanding the value of moral sensitivity and cultural diversity.	Civic engagement Financial responsibility Collaboration/teamwork Ethical reasoning and action Humanitarianism Involvement in campus life Adhering to a health lifestyle Voter registration and voting in on and off-campus elections	Participate as a member of the health care team and exhibit an understanding of values, financial responsibility, and diversity during classroom and laboratory experiences.
2. Practice intellectual skills such as critical thinking, effective communication, and knowledge acquisition and application.	Academic success Involvement in campus life Integration of digital resources into learning experiences Information literacy	Pass each required course (PHR 101, PHR 102, and PHR 103) and demonstrate competency. Utilize the Moodle learning platform, which supports all course offering, including face-to-face and hybrid.
3. Demonstrate self-direction, persistence and lifelong learning.	Develop and achieve college goals Application of knowledge, skills, and responsibilities to future situations	Obtain employment as a pharmacy technician in a retail setting. Successfully pass the PTCB credentialing examination and obtain appropriate state pharmacy technician license.

1/2/18 KJD