

Institutional Student Learning Outcomes*Paramedic Emergency Services Certificate Program

Hagerstown Community College students will be prepared to:

Learning Outcomes	Demonstrated By	Related Activity Examples
1. Demonstrate personal and social responsibility by practicing responsible citizenship, being open to new ideas, and understanding the value of moral sensitivity and cultural diversity.	Civic engagement Financial responsibility Collaboration/teamwork Ethical reasoning and action Humanitarianism Involvement in campus life Adhering to a healthy lifestyle Voter registration and voting in on and off-campus elections	Working as a team to complete simulation exercises. Participation in ambulance company activities. Maintaining EMT credentialing. Learning how to work with other health care providers while participating in practicum experiences.  Become certificate completers and become employed. Students who return to work as lab assistants and FISDAP reviewers.
2. Practice intellectual skills such as critical and independent thinking, effective communication, and knowledge acquisition and application.	Academic success Involvement in campus life Integration of digital resources into learning experiences Information Literacy	Uses FISDAP for clinical placement, entering skills and leadership competency completion. Uses Moodle for course learning support. Participation in senior seminar. Passing the FISDAP Paramedic terminal exam. Passing the Registry- both skills and final exam.
3. Demonstrate self-direction, persistence and lifelong learning	Develop and achieve college goals Application of knowledge, skills, and responsibilities to future situations	Become certificate completers and become employed as paramedics. Three students returned after graduating to work as lab assistants and FISDAP reviewers Maintain Paramedic Certification with 48 CEU hours of refresher and 24 additional CEU hours that can be alphabet courses, every 2 years.