

Institutional Student Learning Outcomes

Theater Program AA

Hagerstown Community College students will be prepared to:

Learning Outcomes	Demonstrated By	Related Activity Examples
1. Demonstrate personal and social responsibility by practicing responsible citizenship, being open to new ideas, and understanding the value of moral sensitivity and cultural diversity.	Civic engagement Financial responsibility Collaboration/teamwork Ethical reasoning and action Humanitarianism Involvement in campus life Adhering to a healthy lifestyle Voter registration and voting in on and off-campus elections	To provide opportunities to perform with a cast of peers. HCC's policy of non-traditional casting (race/ gender/ nationality/age - 'blind' casting) develops an appreciation and understanding of the diversity and value of each and every individual's life experience.
2. Practice intellectual skills such as critical and independent thinking, effective communication, and knowledge acquisition and application.	Academic success Involvement in campus life Integration of digital resources into learning experiences Information Literacy	Students will be able to analyze and critically evaluate a Theater performance. This enhances the student's ability to accurately discern levels of communication in theatrical media including live performances, television, web video, cinema, and public affairs programming.
3. Demonstrate self-direction, persistence and lifelong learning	Develop and achieve college goals Application of knowledge, skills, and responsibilities to future situations	Prepare and deliver a competent and competitive audition for a role in the Academic Theatre Setting. The process of participating in production, including learning the necessary role(s) requires students to develop self-direction and persistence.
