Fall 2018 – Summer 2019 Income Reduction Form

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.

Do not submit this form unless you have already filed a 2018-2019 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and received a copy of your results. Financial need is usually based on annual income from prior-prior tax year data (2016). If your income has recently decreased or you have special financial issues that were not taken into account on your FAFSA, we may be able to reevaluate your financial and/or income information using the 2017 tax year or another 12 month time period that better reflects your financial circumstances.

A professional judgment (PJ) adjustment may be warranted if a family member experienced a significant change of income, either upward or downward. For example: for an individual who has lost a job or has taken a significant salary cut beginning in December of 2016, the Student Financial Aid Administrator (SFAA) may use the income for the 12-month period following the reduction in income (January 2017 through December 2017) instead of the prior-prior year income (calendar 2016) that was initially used in the EFC calculation. Alternatively, the SFAA may choose to use more recent income that more accurately reflects the family's current financial circumstances.

A SFAA may use PJ on a case-by-case basis only to adjust the student's cost of attendance or the data used to calculate a student's EFC. This adjustment is valid only at the school making it. The reason for the adjustment must be documented (by a third party if possible), and it must relate to the special circumstances that differentiate the student from other students—not to conditions that exist for a whole class of students. The law gives some examples of special circumstances, such as elementary or secondary school tuition, medical or dental or nursing home expenses not covered by insurance, unusually high child care costs, being homeless or a dislocated worker, recent unemployment of a family member, or other changes in the family's income or assets.

We cannot make adjustments for any of the following circumstances:

- Vacation expenses
- Tithing expenses
- Standard living expenses like utilities, mortgage or rent
- Credit card expenses
- Children's allowances
- Post-enrollment activity expenses

Please DO NOT MAKE CHANGES TO YOUR SAR / FAFSA. Once we have reviewed your request we will make all the appropriate corrections.
