

Hagerstown Community College Upward Bound Program 2023-24 Preliminary Application

Upward Bound is a grant funded college-prep program implemented collaboratively by Hagerstown Community College and Washington County Public School personnel. At no cost to the family, Upward Bound provides a variety of college related activities as well as academic support services to students year-round. All paperwork must be fully completed.

Program activities include:

- Tutoring offered directly after school twice per week
- Saturday Session from 9am to 1pm offered once per month at HCC – workshops including financial aid and scholarship information, academic and career advising, college and career research, guest speakers and more
- Field trips and college campus tours throughout the year
- Opportunities to earn college credit prior to attending college (all tuition and fees are paid for by grant funding)
- Six-week summer academy on college campus opportunity
- Student service learning events
- Transportation to and from activities
- Breakfast and lunch provided at all activities

Student Writing Sample
2023-2024

As part of the selection process, the Upward Bound Program asks each student to tell us in writing about yourself and your interests, why you want to participate in UB, and what reasons you have for attending college or another post-secondary training program after high school. Be specific and tell us as much about yourself as possible. Not only will this writing sample be used for selection, it will also be used to determine how we can help you develop your writing skills.
