Employer Profile: For nearly 90 years, the focus at CNB Bank has been local decisions and customized solutions. Whether it's a new home or a new investment, we've been working with neighbors and friends in our communities to give them quick and easy access to the banking products and services they want and need. Strong local ownership and decision making has allowed CNB Bank to grow and prosper along with our customers. Our decisions are made right here, locally, not in some corporate office far away. CNB Bank offers financial options from opening a Kasasa rewards checking account for a new graduate, assisting a customer who is preparing for retirement, helping a neighbor purchase a new home, or supporting a local business's expansion. Each year, CNB Bank gives back to the community by providing contributions to local schools, fire and rescue companies, local Chambers of Commerce, United Way, and other nonprofit organizations. We encourage employees to join and volunteer their time to organizations that give back to the community, just as we do. CNB Bank appreciates the important role of a local independent community bank where customers can find financial solutions delivered by people they know and trust. As a community bank, we have a familiarity with and understanding of our customers that large national and regional banks just can't match. The financial services sector is an ever-changing industry. CNB Bank continues to introduce new services and products, expand our online presence and enter new markets. We remain focused and committed to the success of our customers, employees, communities and shareholders. At CNB Bank, we're right here.

Employer: United States Space Force

Booth #: 68

Employer Profile: The U.S. Space Force (USSF) offers compelling marketing opportunities for brands seeking alignment with innovation, national security, and STEM education. As a technologically advanced branch of the U.S. Armed Forces, the USSF provides a unique platform to associate with cutting-edge technology, support patriotic values, and engage with a diverse audience, including tech enthusiasts, STEM professionals, military families, and younger generations. These opportunities span sponsorships, co-branded content, product placement, and cause marketing, allowing businesses to connect with the USSF's mission and contribute to its critical role in protecting U.S. interests in space. Potential partners can leverage the "Guardians" brand and inspirational stories to create authentic campaigns, but must also adhere to USSF regulations and prioritize long-term, mutually beneficial relationships. Key marketing angles include showcasing technology capabilities, supporting STEM initiatives, highlighting national security contributions, and engaging with target audiences through relevant activities. By understanding the USSF's values and mission, marketers can develop effective strategies that not only resonate with consumers but also contribute to the USSF's vital role in securing the space domain.

Employer: Volvo Group Trucks

Booth #: 100

Employer Profile: Volvo Group Truck Operations (GTO) in Hagerstown, MD is where world-class manufacturing meets real career-building. We're part of the global Volvo Group family--building the products and systems that keep businesses, communities, and essential services moving. If you want hands-on work with advanced equipment, a team that takes pride in doing things right, and a pathway to grow from apprentice to expert (or from engineer to leader), Hagerstown is built for you. Why Hagerstown is the place to start (or level up) your career - You'll work on real, high-impact manufacturing--not "practice work." - Modern manufacturing = tech + craftsmanship. - Growth is the expectation, not a bonus. - A culture that respects the work. - Safety, quality, and teamwork come first. Apprenticeships: Build a career with skills that last Mechanical Apprenticeship If you like diagnosing problems, turning wrenches, and keeping complex systems running, this path is for you. You'll learn to maintain and improve manufacturing equipment and production systems--building deep mechanical expertise that stays valuable for life. - Troubleshooting mechanical systems and production equipment - Preventive maintenance, repair, and reliability improvement - Working with hydraulics, pneumatics, conveyors, and industrial machinery - Learning how high-volume manufacturing stays safe, stable, and efficient Electrical Apprenticeship If you're wired for problem-solving, controls, and precision, you'll thrive here. This apprenticeship builds the foundation for industrial electrical work and modern automation environments. - Electrical troubleshooting in a fast-paced manufacturing setting - Controls fundamentals, sensors, and electrical systems support - Interpreting schematics and applying safe work practices - Building skills that translate into automation and controls growth paths Toolmaker Apprenticeship If you're detail-driven and love precision, toolmaking is a high-skill craft with a big future. You'll develop the ability to build, maintain, and refine the tooling that supports consistent, high-quality production. - Precision measurement and inspection practices - Tooling maintenance and improvement work - Working with machining principles and disciplined craftsmanship - Becoming the expert people rely on when "it has to be perfect" Engineering & Manufacturing Careers: Where ideas become production If you're an engineer--or want to become one--Hagerstown offers the best part of manufacturing: you can see your work come to life. You'll collaborate with operations, maintenance, quality, and skilled trades to solve real problems and improve real processes. Career areas may include: - Manufacturing / Industrial / Process Engineering - Maintenance & Reliability Engineering - Quality Engineering & Continuous Improvement - Automation, Controls, and Systems Support - Safety, Ergonomics, and Production Support functions Here, you won't just make slides--you'll help build systems, launch improvements, troubleshoot issues at the source, and create solutions that make work safer and products better.

Type of Employer: Manufacturing/Production/Engineering

Full-Time: Volvo Group Truck Operations in Hagerstown, MD offers hands-on, high-impact manufacturing work where safety, quality, teamwork, and career growth are priorities. Apprenticeships are available in Mechanical, Electrical, and Toolmaking--focused on troubleshooting, maintenance, precision skills, and building expertise that leads to long-term careers. Engineering and manufacturing roles are closely connected to the production floor, letting you solve real problems, improve processes, and see your ideas implemented across areas like manufacturing/process, reliability, quality/CI, automation/controls, and safety/support.

Job Targets Sought: Advanced Manufacturing Systems; Basic Electronics; Computer-Aided Design; Electrical Engineering Technology; Engineering Science; General Studies; Industrial Technology; Management; Mechanical Engineering Technology

Employer: Warehouse Cinemas Leitersburg

Booth #: 11

Employer Profile: At Warehouse Cinemas, we think differently about movie-going. We believe going out to the movies should feel more like an 'afternoon with friends' or an 'evening out' with that special person - cocktail in one hand, buttery popcorn in the other and your feet propped up. Going to the movies should feel special and at Warehouse Cinemas it's a reason to get out of the house, but still feel like you're at home. Our goal is to combine authentic customer service, with an elevated food and beverage menu, and by the way, state-of-the-art projection/sound and leather recliners.

Type of Employer: Commercial Entertainment

Part-Time: Floor Team Members serve guests in a variety of roles, including usher, customer liaison, cashier, and kitchen. As a member of our floor team, you will support our leadership and management staff in the day-to-day operations of the cinema.
