4. Review of FY26 Charge: Student Impairment Policy

-Current Draft: Draft 8 (Tracked Changes)

-Christine Ohl-Gigliotti summarized updates made since the February 12, 2026 meeting

-Discussion Resumed At: Drug Testing section. The committee engaged in an in-depth, line by line review of the Drug Testing section and subsequent portions of the policy. Key discussion points included: application and scope of drug testing language, alignment with institutional safety expectations, clarity and consistency of terminology. Concerns raised included need for clearer definitions and procedural detail, ensuring compliance with legal and institutional standards. Edits were made on the draft using track changes with consensus by all participants. Safety Committee felt their work was completed with this and agreed for Student Affairs committee to do one final review at the April meeting before submitting for review by the Vice-President.

The following timeline was reviewed:

- April 9: Goal to finalize policy for submission to VP Dawn Schoenenberger
- April 14: Board submission deadline
- April 21: Board review
- May: Board approval anticipated for FY27 inclusion
- May 14: TBD (possible RSO policy discussion)
- June 11: TBD, if needed

Scheduling remains flexible based on policy progress. The meeting was adjourned at 3:47p.

Next Meeting: April 9, 2026 at 2:30 p.m. (Zoom)
