

Become a Solar Inspector

- Conduct on-site inspections
- Identify applicable codes and ordinances
- Identify solar installation components
- Assess the safety and operation of a system

Class begins October 1

hagerstowncc.edu/solar

For quality assurance or codes personnel, the solar inspector training covers the must know topics for evaluating system electrical, storage, and mechanical components as well as document code violations or installation deviations. Participants can obtain the NABCEP Solar System Inspector certification.

Grant scholarships available for Maryland residents

For more information call

240-500-2413

